RC may switch courses with verbal notice to competitors.

Marks

Yellow balls shall be used as racing marks and buoys with a white ball as the starting and finishing pins. Committee boat end of the start and finish shall be the staff with a flag.

Start

Appendix S - 3 min. with automatic starting box or whistles

Race Committee will attempt to hail boats OCS.

I flag in effect after general recall, whether or not flag is displayed. I flag remains in effect for the remainder of the set.

Penalties and Exonerations

RRS Appendix V1, Alternative Penalties shall be in effect. (two turns for fouls in the zone, one turn otherwise. Refer to rulebook for exact wording.)

Protests and Requests for Redress (RFR)

Boat being protested must be notified at time of incident and after the finish.

Protest flags are not required.

RC must be notified of intent to protest at the finish.

There will be an attempt to resolve all protests before going out for the next rotation.

Protest forms available at Judge's table.

Protests must be filed (with completed forms) within 10 minutes of reaching shore at the end of the relevant rotation.

Competitors protesting must submit their protest form to their coach within the time limit. The coach will organize a protest committee consisting of coaches whose teams are not involved in the protest.

Requests for redress will use the same onshore procedures as protests.

Breakdowns resulting from anything that could have been reasonably prevented by a thorough inspection of the sailors before racing shall not be subject to redress.

Note to Coaches:

Coaches may be asked to help on the Committee Boat and serve as judges for protests if there are any.

To give all teams equal opportunities for coaching:

On the water coaching is not permitted between races within the same rotation

On the water coaching must not include the benefit of observations made on the water that cannot be made from ashore
